

How does Andorra respond to the European Council?

Andorra replies generally positively to the Council's regular calls for alignment with EU foreign, security and human rights policies. The EU and Andorra are like-minded on values such as the protection of human rights, democracy, security, multilateralism and a rules-based international order.

Is Andorra a member of the EU?

Andorra participates, in the context of the EU regional policy, in cross-border Pyrenean Mountains cooperation with Spain and France. The EU - Andorra customs union is based on the 1990 Agreement and its Veterinary Protocol and the Protocol on customs security measures.

Do I need a Schengen visa to visit Andorra?

Schengen visas are accepted, but those travellers who need a visa to enter the Schengen Area need a multiple-entry visa to visit Andorra, because entering Andorra means leaving the Schengen Area, and re-entering France or Spain is considered a new entry into the Schengen Area.

Which countries border Andorra?

Andorra borders two EU member states: France and Spain. The "Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Principality of Andorra" (signed 28 June 1990, entered into force 1 July 1991) establishes a customs union with most favoured nation status between the Principality and the EU.

Does Andorra require a visa?

Andorra does not have any visa requirements. Citizens of EU countries need either a national identity card or passport to enter Andorra, while anyone else requires a passport or equivalent.

How many countries have participated in ESS?

39 countries have participated in at least one round since 2002/03; 31 countries participated in ESS Round 10 (2020-22). European countries are welcome to join the ESS, even if they have previously not taken part or have been absent for some time.
